

WESTERN NEW MEXICO UNIVERSITY

A University Worth Discovering

INSPIRING GENEROSITY -- EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

RECOGNITION AND THANKS

Friends of WNMU Group of Twenty Collegiate and Program Recognition Clubs

The colleges of Western New Mexico University and other campus programs publish honor rolls and maintain honor clubs to recognize their supporters. In addition, the WNMU Foundation in conjunction with the Office of Institutional Advancement offers a variety of University-wide recognition opportunities for those who are able to give at higher levels.

Friends of WNMU

The Friends of WNMU permanently recognizes those who make an outright gift, deferred gift, or multi-year pledge commitment of $40,000 or more to support various areas of the University. Corporations, businesses, foundations, and other organizations that demonstrate generous support for the University at the Friends of WNMU level receive formal and enduring recognition.

Courtesies:

- Free admittance to WNMU activities
- Invitations to WNMU events
- Insider communication from WNMU leaders
- Alumni donors by graduation year (if alumni) and all donors listed by state on website
- Recognition plaques permanently displayed (location TBD; suggestions include renovated administration building or the GRC auditorium)
- Annual recognition dinner
- Donor & donor level ("Club") published in Alumni Bulletin
- Additional benefits may apply for the specific Collegiate and Program Recognition Club to which the donation applies

Regents' Club: $2,500,000 or more

President's Club: $1,000,000 - $2,499,999

Provost's Club: $250,000 - $999,999

Vice President's Club: $40,000 - $249,999

Group of Twenty:

The Group of Twenty was established to support the efforts of the office of Institutional Advancement (IA) at WNMU, including the Capital Campaign.

Courtesies:

- Free admittance to WNMU activities
- Invitations to WNMU events
- Insider communication from WNMU leaders
- Group of Twenty recognition plaque permanently displayed (location TBD)
- Annual recognition dinner

COLLEGIATE AND PROGRAM RECOGNITION CLUBS

Contributors to schools and programs across the WNMU campus may qualify for specific honor clubs including:

Alumni Association	(Gloria Maya or Ann Marie Elder)
Athletics	Miller Library (Gilda Ortego)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ WNMU Athletic Hall of Fame▪ Brancheau Photo Gallery
Criminal Justice & Chemical Dependency (Curtis Hayes)	Mimbres Valley Learning Center (Andy Hernandez or Donna Rees)
Expressive Arts (Michael Metcalf)	Natural Sciences (Randy Jennings)
Fine Arts Center Theatre (Ann Marie Elder)	School of Applied Technology* (Tony Macias)
Gallup Graduate Studies Center (Patricia Manzanares Gonzales)	School of Business & Economics* (Kooros Maskooki)
Humanities (Janet Wallet-Ortiz)	School of Education* (Patricia Manzanares Gonzales) <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ WNMU Education Hall of Fame
Math & Computer Science (Deanne Miller)	School of Health Sciences & Human Performance* (Beth Walker)
McCray Art Gallery	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Applied Health & Kinesiology

Martinez-Fall Founders Club: $1 per year since 1893 (75% to scholarship; 25% to Association)

Purple and Gold Club: $75 annually ($50 to scholarship; $25 to association)

Gold Club: $50 annually ($25 to scholarship; $25 to Association)

Purple Club: $25 annually ($12.50 to scholarship; $12.50 to Association)

Capital Campaign “Dream Book”

The WNMU Capital Campaign “Dream Book” is a collection of campus-wide needs to support our students, faculty, and the community in general. In alignment with the WNMU Strategic Plan, the following Dream Book priorities have been identified for fundraising purposes:

Dream Book Item	Strategic Planning Priority Supported
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.	