WNMU HOSTS FINANCIAL AID NIGHT IN ALBUQUERQUE FOR AREA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Silver City, NM – Albuquerque area high school students interested in financial aid opportunities and admission to Western New Mexico University are invited to Financial Aid Night on Thursday, March 24 at 6:00 p.m. in the Marriot Pyramid Hotel.

The event is open to all high school students and their family members in Albuquerque area schools.

WNMU Admissions and Financial Aid Office experts, along with representatives from the New Mexico Education Assistance Foundation, will facilitate a presentation and question and answer period. Seniors who are scheduled to graduate in May can apply for the Early Freshman Scholarship (EFS). EFS scholarships will be awarded at the event to those who qualify. The EFS Scholarship covers the full tuition cost for the initial semester of attendance at WNMU.

This is an important period for students who are submitting financial aid information to higher education institutions. Scholarships, loans and grants are awarded to WNMU students beginning April 1.

The event is free and refreshments will be served. Students or parents wishing to attend should RSVP by contacting Jeff Perales at peralesa1@wnmu.edu or 575-538-6000.

RSVPs can also be made at www.wnmu.edu/FinancialAidNight.

Located in Silver City, New Mexico, Western New Mexico University has served the people of the state of New Mexico and its surrounding areas as a comprehensive, regional, rural, public coeducational university since 1893 and caters to a student body diverse in age, culture, language and ethnic background.
