GRANT COUNTY ALUMNI CHAPTER TO MEET FEB. 6

Silver City, NM – The Grant County chapter of Western New Mexico University alumni will meet on Monday, February 6 at 5:30 p.m. in Hunter Hall.

The chapter will introduce recently elected offices including chapter president Abe Villarreal and chapter vice-president Guadalupe Cano.

Agenda items include discussion of the chapter's participation in upcoming events including Founders Day on February 10 and the Alumni Appreciation Day at the Mustang basketball games on February 17.

All area alumni are invited and encouraged to attend. As part of the annual Founders Day activities celebrating WNMU's birthday, Grant County alumni will pose for a group photo that will be included in a time capsule to be buried at the Founders Day celebration on February 10 at 3:00 p.m.

"This is an exciting chance to be part of history," said Abe Villarreal, new chapter president. "The time capsule will not be opened for 50 years, so I encourage all alumni to attend our upcoming meeting and be photographed."

For information on the upcoming meeting, please contact 575.538.6675.
