KAPPA DELTA PI INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

Silver City, NM – Five Western New Mexico University students were recently inducted into Kappa Delta Pi, International Honor Society in Education.

Western New Mexico University's School of Education held an induction ceremony in April for its five inductees Sylvia Cynthia Acosta, Maria Calvillo, Marissa Jaeger, Teresa Quarrell and Evangeline Tarango.

Membership in the honor society is by invitation only and is extended to undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, and professional educators who have demonstrated outstanding scholarship and leadership. The top ten percent of those entering or working in the field of education are members of the society.

Kappa Delta Pi has more than 50,000 members in over 550 collegiate and professional chapters in colleges, universities, and communities through the United States and around the world. The organization recognizes and promotes excellence in education.

WNMU chartered the Alpha Epsilon Kappa chapter of the Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society in 2009.
