WNMU HOSTS FIRST ANNUAL TARDEADA IN MINING DISTRICT

Silver City, NM – Western New Mexico University is hosting its first annual WNMU Tardeada in Bayard on October 15 from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. in the Food Basket parking lot.

The WNMU Tardeada is free to the community and will feature live music by Fermin along with festive foods including horchata, aguas frescas, tamales, chips and dip, and pan dulce.

Family activities will include a jumping balloon, games and prizes.

The first annual event is intended to bring the university community to the Mining District each fall during Hispanic Heritage Month.

“It’s important to have everyone come out and meet WNMU’s new president and learn about his vision for our community,” said Maria Dominguez Director of the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Student Activities. “This is also a cultural learning opportunity for our students during Hispanic Heritage Month.”

The event is sponsored by WNMU, Little Nisha’s Restaurant, Food Basket and Mi Ranchito. For more information, contact 575-538-6611.

Located in Silver City, New Mexico, Western New Mexico University has served the people of the state of New Mexico and its surrounding areas as a comprehensive, regional, rural, public coeducational university since 1893 and caters to a student body diverse in age, culture, language and ethnic background.
