

International Symposium on Global Education

Preparing for the Future

November 1-3, 2013 / Silver City, NM

WESTERN
NEW MEXICO UNIVERSITY

Symposium Schedule

Friday, November 1

Registration & Welcome Reception – Student Memorial Center 2nd floor Sunset Room, 7:00pm to 10:00pm. Entertainment provided by the Santa Clara Folklórico Dancers. Ballroom dancing led by Manuel Rodriguez.

Saturday, November 2

Presentation Day – Student Memorial Center 3rd floor Seminar Room, Registration 8:00am, Presentations 9:00am to 4:00pm, Visit to the Ogilvie Ranch 6:00pm with Cowboy Chuck Wagon Dinner.

Sunday, November 3

Excursion Day – Participant's Choice (Cliff Dwellings and visitor center or Horseback riding at Ft. Bayard. Leave from Student Memorial Center parking lot, 8:00am – 6:00pm)

Monday, November 4

University Poster Session – New Perspectives of Education, Set-up 8:00am, Presentations 9:00am-11:00am, University Museum Visit to Pottery Exhibition 12pm, Farewell 2pm.

International Symposium on Global Education

Preparing for the Future

November 1-3, 2013 / Silver City, NM

WESTERN
NEW MEXICO UNIVERSITY

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Olga Ramirez and Dr. Diana M. Trevouledes
Professors at St. Louis University, Madrid, Spain

Call for Papers

The College of Education at Western New Mexico University with the local chapter of Kappa Delta Pi is hosting an International Symposium on new perspectives in education on Nov. 1, 2, and 3. Registration costs will be $150 which includes two meals, two breakfasts and transportation from the airport.

Suggested topics:

Ebooks and their effect on learning
The Psychology of Social Media
Education and the Internet
Electronic Assessment and Accountability

Send your proposed abstracts to Dr. Ann Harvey at harveya1@wnmu.edu.

Rubric For Review of Proposed Papers

Element	4 points	6 points	8 points	10 points
Topic: Relevant to conference	Topic is not relevant.	Topic is somewhat relevant.	Topic is relevant but not practical.	Topic is not relevant and is practical.
WNMU Mission: Effective practices and policies advancing technology enhanced teaching and learning	Does not address mission.	Addresses mission but does not advance.	Addresses mission but is not an effective practice.	Addresses mission, is an effective practice.
Content: Has innovative concepts and ideas and is good practice	Content is not innovative and/or is not good practice.	Content is innovative but not good practice.	Content is not innovative but is good practice.	Content is innovative and is good practice.
Instructional Practices and Applications: Presentation has practical "take away" value	The proposal makes little or no mention of instructional practices or application in the field.	The proposal mentions instructional practices or applications in the field that are relevant to the context, but may not be innovative or immediately useful.	The proposal presents instructional practices and/or applications that are clear and useful.	The proposal presents instructional practices and/or applications that are innovative and immediately useful and include handouts.
Research Base: Proposal is research based and outcomes oriented	Proposal has no research base.	Proposal has limited research.	Proposal has research base but is not outcomes oriented.	Proposal has research base and is outcomes oriented.
Presentation Format: The presentation format reflects varied delivery styles and the proposal describes the intended audience outcomes.	The presentation format does not reflect varied delivery styles or does not describe the intended audience outcomes.	The presentation format has low potential for engaging the audience, only uses lecture format, OR fails to describe the intended audience outcomes.	The proposal has potential for engaging the described audience; 2-3 different presentation formats are used; and the audience outcome is clear.	The proposal has high potential for engaging the described audience; has more than three different presentation formats are used; and the audience outcome is clear.

International Symposium on Global Education

Preparing for the Future

November 1-3, 2013 / Silver City, NM

WESTERN
NEW MEXICO UNIVERSITY

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Olga Ramirez Calle, who received her doctorate from J. W. Goethe University in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, will speak on Ethics and the Internet. Her publications include: Ramirez Calle, O. 2012 E-Book The Grounds of Inference by the international electronic publisher Lulu. www.lulu.com. (See <http://lulupresscenter.com/>) ISBN. 978-1-4717-7531-4 (Also as paper book in www.lulu.com)

Dr. Diana M. Trevouledes, a clinical psychologist who graduated from the Derner Institute of the Adelphi University, NY, will speak on Cyber Bullying. Her publications include: Trevouledes, D. & Grieger, I. (2012-in progress). Success and Sanity on the College Campus: A Guide for Parents (Rowman & Littlefield Publishers, MD).

Featured Speakers

Dr. Jacqui Cyrus, University of Guam

Dr. Louis Greathouse, Puebla, Mexico

Panel Discussion

A panel discussion will investigate the topics of the book: Nicholas Carr's The Shallows What the Internet is Doing to our Brains. Panel Leader: Dr. Margarita Wulftange, WNMU. Panelist: Dr. Manny Bustamante, WNMU, and Mr. David Krupke, St. Ambrose University.

Lodging

Participants who stay at the Holiday Inn Express (1103 Superior St., Silver City, 575-538-2525) receive a room rate of $79.00. The Murray Hotel (575-956-9400, www.murray-hotel.com), an historic downtown hotel, offers a rate of $65.00. Transportation will be provided from the El Paso Airport to Silver City. A shuttle will bring participants from the hotel to the university. Please let us know your arrival time.